'SINCE DAY ONE I FELT THAT SHE WAS THE ONE I WAS GOING TO MARRY'

FOOTBALLER FABIO BORINI WEDS HIS STUNNING BRIDE, MODEL ERIN O'NEILL, IN THE PICTURESQUE ITALIAN COUNTRYSIDE

Erin looked beautiful in her Gaila Lohay gown, rose bouquet and long tulle veil

There was no doubt that it was the match of the day when Liverpool and Sunderland striker Fabio Borini married Erin O'Neill in a romantic ceremony in Tuscany. The couple said 'I do' in front of more than 180 guests in the grounds of Castello di Casole, one of Italy's largest private estates, near Siena. Guests included former Liverpool goalkeeper Brad Jones and his wife Dani, Stoke City's Glen Johnson and his wife Laura, Italian footballers Fausto Rossi and Luca Caldirola and Sky Sports presenter Dougie Keen. The day before the main event, the couple had a registry office ceremony in the town hall. When they emerged, hundreds of locals had gathered in the square to shower them with confetti. Bologna-born Fabio, 24, took a bow when he saw all the people, while Erin, 27, said: 'It was really sweet that everybody turned out to wish us well'. After a relaxing morning sunbathing, it was time for the couple to get ready for their 5.30pm nuptials at an ancient amphitheatre. With all the guests seated on cushions perched atop the stone stairs, Fabio arrived with his mother – an Italian wedding tradition. Erin's bridesmaids – her sister Orla O'Neill and friends Toni Grant, Lauren McBride and Michaela Foster, Fabio's sister Gloria Borini and his childhood best friend Valentina Livi – then came into view, wearing Philip Armstrong dresses inspired by Hollywood glamour. As a gospel choir sang John Legend's All Of Me – the couple's favourite song – the crowd broke into applause as Erin walked down the aisle in her Gaila Lohay gown, accompanied by her dad Vince. The couple made traditional vows in English and Italian before the choir sang Bruno Mars' Treasure, the song that was playing when Fabio proposed to Erin. They signed the register. With the official part over, the couple popped a bottle of champagne and made a toast to life. Wearing matching smiles, Erin and Fabio walked back up the aisle to Pharrell Williams' hit Happy. The couple of nearly three years then took a few minutes of their own to contemplate their future. Like the ceremony itself, the wedding breakfast was also outside – served in a beautiful courtyard hung with fairy lights. The five-course meal included lavish classics like foie gras, lobster ravioli, a tagliatelle with ragù, truffle steak and white chocolate parfait. Speeches were given by Erin's dad and best man Thomas Verardi.

The couple wed in the amphitheatre at the Castello di Casole estate near Siena, Tuscany laughed at any moment. Fabio – who wore a custom-made Dolce & Gabbana suit – says his bride Erin. Far right: The Italian striker places a tender arm around his wife's waist as they pose for photos
